Men use their great health in luxurious ease when they ought to have their coals off, and their sleeves rolled up, togging away with all their might trying to lift the sunken wreck of a world.

Prayer is the peace of our spirit, the stillness of our thoughts, the evenness of recollection, the rest of our cares, and the caim of our tempest; prayer is the issue of a quiet mind, of notroubled thoughts; it is the daughter of charity, and the sister of meckuess.—JERKHY TAYLOR.

Decision is a nobla element of character. Desison is a solla element of character. The vacilitating man can never realize great-ness in anything. He waste his time and his impulses in he-stange. He poises too long between opposite forces, and when he moves forward, it is with faltering step of indecision. His faculties are relaxed— they are not condensed into a manly force by a determined will.

The difficulties of cobelief are ten times greater than the difficulties of faith.—

MODEL MEETING.

Here's Something for Our Officers!

We have drawn oot the following outline for a salvation meeting for soveral reasons. First, it will help keep you out of ruts. Second, it is something new, and will therefore be interesting. Tallrd, it will help you in dispersing of your Cara, because everybody ought to buy one and follow the outline. Fourth, it preaches alvation in a clear manner.

preaches salvation in a clear manner.

Having had a rousing openair meeting, in which some straight hitting was indeliged in, and marched lack to the larrancks singing a stirring salvation song, you take your place on the platform and pray for a decoust of God's conteining power upon the sinners present. The Capitain gets all the people as easy the front as possible and then the meeting starts with—

Rejoice, ye saints, the time draws near When Christ will in the clouds appear, And for His people call. CHORUS.—Trim your lamps and he ready For the midnight cry.

The trumpet sounds, the thunders roll,
The heavens passing as a scroll,
The earth will burn with tire.

You sinners then on earth will burn. To nabes will their bodies turn : The saints will shout with joy.

Poor sinners then on earth will cry (While lightning's flashing from the sky), "O mountains, on us fall!"

Then comes prayer. These must be short, yet have something in them—not mere words, but some dealing with God. The sisters most take a part in this, so well as in every other part of the meeting. While on your knees sing—

"God is near thee, tell thy story, He will hear thy tale of sorrow God is near thee, and in mercy He will welcome thy return."

After rising the Captain calls upon Brother —— to speak for a few minutes a how God saved him. The following chorus can then be sung—

" You must be saved to wear a crown. To wear a starry crown.

Away over Jordan with my blessed Jesus,
Away over Jordan to wear a starry crown.

Nister — takes the platform and pleads with the sinners present for a recoler that night. Next, let everybody sing —
